VIVO NETWORK ACCESS SERVICE TERMS AND CONDITIONS

At the end of service term provided for in the initial service agreement, VIVO will continue to provide service according to the Terms and Conditions applicable at the time of renewal.

The installation fees provided for herein shall be due payable upon the subscribers approval of this Service Application. Any outstanding amounts result of installation provided for herein shall be due and payable at the time of activation of service.

This agreement shall remain valid for the duration of the provided for service period commencing at the moment paid for services are delivered to the subscriber. This agreement cannot be cancelled for any reason whatsoever, with the exception of the predetermined cancellation provisions provided for in the published service terms and conditions.

The current VIVO service terms and conditions are available at <http://nsp1.vivointernet.com> shall apply and binding upon the subscriber. The Terms and Conditions include without limitation all modifications, revisions and updates regarding usage policy, access, rates, non-authorized usage, spam illegal activities etc, as well as any policy or requirements that could be imposed by VIVO suppliers.

The subscriber further acknowledges the entire equipment installed on the subscriber premises is the exclusive property of VIVO and further accepts and recognizes that VIVO installed such equipment at the sole expense of the subscriber for the purpose of delivering network access to the VIVO network. All alterations, changes or any deterioration result of the installation to the subscribers residence or any failure of installed equipment can not be object of any legal recourse against VIVO. All installation fees and network access fees are non-refundable.

The subscriber hereby grants unrestricted access to representatives duly authorized by VIVO during normal daytime hours to the premises where service delivery is made to the subscriber, should such the need arise, to ensure service as provided for herein.

In the event that the subscribers account is in default result of unpaid amounts due VIVO, this would constitute a breach of VIVO Service Terms and Conditions and VIVO shall be within it's entire legal right to seek full recourse as is provided for in the Service Terms and Conditions. Furthermore, Subscriber agrees to irrevocably renounces all their rights to legal recourse against VIVO in the event of any such default.

All data transfers in excess of provided for data transfer capacities shall be billed at the rate of $0.008 per Megabyte without exception. All service reactivation will be subject to a $50 fee payable by the subscriber prior to reactivation. Any payment returned by any financial institution for Non-Sufficient Funds shall be subject to a NSF Fee of $50 per incident.

The subscriber acknowledges that VIVO, it's supplier, service or service plans cannot guaranty the service performance speed indicated, and that the speed indicated is only an indication of the possible maximum speed the service plan could attain under ideal conditions. Furthermore the subscriber fully acknowledges that the online service performance and data transfer rates are variable and subject to network traffic and the performance of solicited servers outside the control of VIVO.

It is fully understood that VIVO or its suppliers shall under no circumstances be held responsible for any service interruptions whatsoever regardless of reason or duration.

In the event that VIVO (i) is unable to provide a service or part of a service or its equipment result of legislation, law, judicial or governmental order or requirement (ii) or decide for any reason whatsoever to discontinue offering product(s) and or service(s), the subscriber acknowledges and agrees that VIVO can immediately cease offering the services(s) or product(s) without any responsibility whatsoever versus the subscriber. The termination of a service by VIVO would result in termination of VIVO network access.

VIVO retains the irrevocable right to transfer this agreement without prior notice.

The present agreement is subject to the laws of Quebec and subject the Jurisdiction of the Courts for the District of Montreal
